Gentlemen:

I understand that Clara Barton has been nominated for the Hall of Fame. I would urge her election.

I have visited Clara Barton's Birthplace in Oxford, Mass. It is there that the women of the Universalist Church many years ago established a camp for Diabetic Girls, and this is still in operation.

I have read many books about the work of Clara Barton in the war years, and know from many books that I have read of her other interests.

The election of Clara Barton to the Hall of Fame would be a well-deserved honor.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Mildred B. Olson
